Memory Care and Life Enrichment

In Kingswood Court the experts have thought of everything...

The community features an open floor plan to enable our residents and allow them the independence to walk and wander safely. Our secure outdoor courtyard provides residents with a greater sense of freedom and has way-finding paths to help orient them.

Residents in Kingswood Court are encouraged to engage in stimulating activities such as gardening, various instructional classes, monthly outings and trips to the market to build stamina and increase awareness. The neighborhood also features memory enhancing areas to help our residents remember familiar daily activities such as a sewing nook, a mirror vanity decorated with accessories and costume jewelry, and quiet sitting areas for reading.

We understand that each resident is unique, which is why a specialized care plan is designed and tailored to meet your loved one's individual needs.
